Travel Training

For those who need help
learning to ride the
MTA bus system

What is Travel Training?

Travel Training teaches riders how to use the MTA Fixed Route/Your Ride system. The training is customized to meet each individual's needs.

Getting started is easy

Travel Training sessions are as unique as you are. The Travel Trainer will meet you at your home, conduct a travel assessment, and develop a personalized travel plan. The Travel Trainer will accompany you throughout your entire travel training experience. Best of all the training is self paced – take all of the time you need and ask all of the questions you want.

What will I learn?

Travel Training follows an easy, step-by-step learning process. You will learn to:

- Read bus maps and schedules
- Plan your trip and ride the necessary routes
- Recognize bus stops, landmarks and route names
- Pay fares and purchase passes
- Safely cross the street and other important pedestrian skills
- Prepare for bus riding questions
- Ride the bus with confidence

5 reasons to leave the driving to MTA:

1. FREEDOM

You can enjoy the freedom of traveling safely throughout the Genesee County area without the stress of driving in traffic

2. PRIORITY SEATING

Seniors and persons with disabilities enjoy priority seating

3. ACCESSIBILITY

MTA vehicles are accessible to everyone. Lifts or ramps, as well as secured wheelchair spaces, are available for those using mobility aids

4. AFFORDABLE

Public transit costs less than owning a car there are a variety of passes to meet your needs

5. TRAVEL FURTHER

Expanded travel options increase your social life and expand your options on where to go and what to do
